Into the Blue Jun 19 2020 In the twelve weeks from the end of June to mid September 2021, Susan Coates had a two-way conversation with God. Each day, when she felt the time was right, she sat in front of her computer, at her home in England, and emptied her mind. She asked a question, and then typed the answers that seemed to come through. They made sense. Not only that but their sense was not hers - they gave answers she could not have thought up and told her things she did not know. Progress was halting at first but as she relaxed and overcame her resistances the answers became longer, more complex and more 'educational'. Always helpful, the subjects covered are wide-ranging from her own personal hang-ups through to Time and Gravity and the way the Universe works. However, at the root of them all is the desire to help us tackle this period of change we are going through in the world, in a constructive and creative way, and to urge us to get together, and act together, in like-minded groups for maximum effect. The channelled words are beautiful, clear, comforting and positive whilst at the same time conveying a sense of urgency that we need to act now if we are to turn our planetary ship around before it is too late.

Susan's Brother Jul 13 2022 In 1957, at the age of 9, Susan's brother was in an adult unit – a unit treating very seriously ill mental patients. In 1985, Susan's brother took delivery of an Aston Martin DBS. The intervening 28 years hold a remarkable story about a man who grew and prospered as a successful engineering professional, but started out as a dyslexic 'slow starter', unwanted by his mother and sister. This is based on a true history, a history that gives hope, a history that demonstrates how simple acts of kindness by friends and neighbours can help someone overcome tremendous handicaps, identity denial and family abuse to become a success both as a person and a parent. There is also a message about those who learn to abuse as children and continue that abuse into adulthood with their own children, and also about those in the extended family who turn a blind eye out of a misplaced sense of family loyalty. This book has some dark moments, but it is a book written to uplift.

Picasso: Painting the Blue Period Dec 26 2020 New insights into Picasso's Blue Period, through innovative technology that reveals hidden compositions, motifs and alterations, plus hitherto unknown information on the artist's materials and process This lavishly illustrated volume reexamines Pablo Picasso's famous Blue Period (1901-04) in paintings, works on paper and sculpture. Relying on new information gleaned from technical studies performed on The Blue Room (Le Tub) (1901), Crouching Beggarwoman (La Miséreuse accroupie) (1902) and The Soup (La Soupe) (1903), this multidisciplinary volume combines art history and advanced conservation science in order to show how the young Picasso fashioned a distinct style and a pronounced artistic identity as he adapted the artistic lessons of fin-de-siècle Paris to the social and political climate of an economically struggling Barcelona. Essays, a chronology and a summary of conservation findings contextualize Picasso's experimental approach to painting during the Blue Period. A major contribution to the burgeoning field of technical art history, Picasso: Painting the Blue Period advances new scholarship on one of the most critical episodes in 20th-century modernism.

Susan's Last Summer Aug 02 2021 Two Susans share a last summer. Susan Carson faces a mind-numbing factory job at the end of summer unless she can prove herself as a professional author. Becoming a companion to the dying artist, Susan Stone, means a chance to have time to write, time she does not have on a hard-working farm in Depression times. The older woman is indomitable, passionate and difficult, but warms to the younger. She shares the stories of her childhood, her dashing father, her marriage, and her life in the art circles of Paris and New York. She completes her last paintings. Young Susan learns of life both vicariously and at firsthand as she listens, writes, faces rejection, falls in love, and acknowledges that she must decide whether her heart or her talent will guide her life.

Susan's Tiger - Essays from India Dec 18 2022 This collection of essays is influenced by those written by Montaigne in the 16th Century. He was the first author to describe his work as essays. He used the term to describe his attempts, or 'essais', to express his thoughts in writing. The topics of the essays range from the 1929 Floods in Sind, to Socialism in Chile during President Allende's Presidency in the 1970's and later travels through Ancient Greece. Gunwantsingh Jaswantsingh Malik (Gunwant) was born in Karachi and studied in India and in Europe, before joining the Royal Air Force in Britain during WWII, after which he entered the Indian Foreign Service. His postings took him around the world before he retired from diplomatic service. He then returned to his home in New Delhi from where he has pursued his love of travel, reading in several languages, and writing. The essays are a sequel to his autobiography 'A Sikh Diplomat'.

Contemporary Irish Documentary Theatre Feb 14 2020

Contemporary Irish Documentary Theatre is the first anthology of Irish documentary drama. It features five challenging plays by Irish writers, and one by an international author, interrogating and commenting on crucial events of Irish history and of the diaspora, with introductory essays by established academics. Together these plays represent the most innovative development in contemporary Irish theatre and illuminate the social and political realities of contemporary Ireland. The first two plays, of 2010 and 2013, deal with scandals of clerical and institutional abuse, and use as source material the Ryan Report of 2009, and the documents from the 2008 Irish Bank Guarantee. The next two, of 2014 and 2013, concern interpretations of the most iconic moment of Irish history: the Easter Rising. The first of these is based on published statements of participants in the event and the second on the lived experiences of those in the contemporary Republic whose founding ideals have not been realized. The last two plays, of 2015 and 2016, widen the view to the history of the Irish in the diaspora: one retelling the history of emigration to England based on published research material; and the other tracing Roger Casement's experiences in the Amazon and his subsequent participation in the Easter Rising using extracts from his diaries and other writings. The plays included and discussed are: No Escape by Mary Raftery Guaranteed by Colin Murphy Of This Brave Time by Jimmy Murphy History by Grace Dyas My English Tongue, My Irish Heart by Martin Lynch The Two Deaths of Roger Casement by Domingos Nunez

The Blue Between Sky and Water Sep 15 2022 It is 1947, and Beit Daras, a rural Palestinian village, is home to the Baraka family – oldest daughter Nazmiyah, brother Mamdouh, beautiful, dreamy Mariam and their widowed mother. When Israeli forces descend, sending the village up in flames, the family must take the long road to Gaza, in a walk that will test them to their limits. Sixty years later, in America, Mamdouh's granddaughter Nur falls in love with a doctor. Following him to his work in Gaza, she meets Alwan, who will help Nur discover the ties of kinship that transcend distance – and even death. Told with raw humanity, The Blue Between Sky and Water is a lyrical, devastatingly beautiful story of a family's relocation, separation, survival and love.
