There's nothing I wouldn't do for my best friend. Like, hide the fact I've been in love with her for years. Or agree to be her fake boyfriend when we have to return to her hometown for her exes wedding. Little does Jillian know this is what I've been waiting for. It's a dream come true. I finally get to touch her and love her in all the ways I've been dying to show her. For one weekend only, she's mine, even if she thinks it's fake. Pretending to love her is easy. I want her to be mine forever. Getting Jillian to admit it's what she wants too, is another thing. On or off the ice, I have no problems fighting dirty to get what I want. But this is one fight I might just lose. Tessa Chauncy is the best kind of trouble. Beautiful, sweet and completely off limits. I've sat by and watched other men drool after her and forced myself to stay in check. Hey, I'm in the NHL... I have self-control in spades. Except when it comes to her. With the bat of her lashes and quick whip of that sharply pointed tongue Tessa can knock grown men to their knees. I've seen them wither and crumble under her confident stare—something I'm pretty sure she learned from sparring with me, thankyouverymuch. But I'm not just falling for her. I'm down for the count. She's the girl I wanted, when wanting her was wrong. She's also my new roommate-- And oh yeah, my best friend's little sister. Heaven help me, I'm probably going to get his fist to my face or his hockey stick shoved in very dangerous places for what I'm about to do, but I don't think I care anymore. I'm in love with my best friend's little sister....and I'm done waiting. Boston Bay Vikings: hot enough to melt the ice. Camden I grew up with only one dream—to become a professional hockey player. My dream came true and now I was a winger for the Boston Bay Vikings. I never gave much thought to having that 'special' someone in my life until I saw the young woman who hunkered down like a scared rabbit in the team's shower room. I went from a carefree bachelor to a fierce protector. Molly Exhausted and scared, I fell asleep in an empty room and came awake to find the gaze of three naked men on me. It turned out I'd found my way into the shower room of the Boston Bay Vikings—I'd never heard of them. However, it was the fourth man to appear who gave me hope. He spoke with confidence and made me feel safe. I didn't want to leave his side, but I'd learned the hard way that anything good never lasted. Crazy, relentless, all-powerful love. Have you ever wondered if we're missing it? It's crazy, if you think about it. The God of the universe—the Creator of nitrogen and pine needles, galaxies and E-minor—loves us with a radical, unconditional, self-sacrificing love. And what is our typical response? We go to church, sing songs, and try not to cuss. Whether you've verbalized it yet or not, we all know something's wrong. Does something deep inside your heart long to break free from the status quo? Are you hungry for an authentic faith that addresses the problems of our world with tangible, even radical, solutions? God is calling you to a passionate love relationship with Himself. Because the answer to religious complacency isn't working harder at a list of do's and don'ts—it's falling in love with God. And once you encounter His love, as Francis describes it, you will never be the same. Because when you're wildly in love with someone, it changes everything. "These 17 stories progress from grim to laugh-out-loud ludicrous without ever derogating their common subject, love, though they do depict it as fairly insane."--Booklist. I need to stop falling for the straight ones. It's a tale as old as time for lesbians. There are always two rules: Don't fall for your best friend, and don't fall for a straight girl. This time, I've done both. Love is crazy, and is found in the strangest of places. What I thought was a dead end could lead to new love. A new girl. Someone who wanted me back the same way I wanted them. Someone I'm falling for. But love is complicated. And now I'm caught between two women, stuck in a love triangle. I don't know what's going to happen... But what I do know is that I love two different women. And I can't imagine my life without either... *** Crazy: A Lesbian Love Story by Dylanne Brooks is a love-triangle lesbian romance telling the winding love story between Feya, Alicia, and Sarah. This lesbian romance touches on the sweet, the sensual, the steamy, the passionate, the sad, the heartbreaking, the happy, and the joyous, and concludes with a happy ending. When private eye Bubba Mabry is hired by millionaire Melvin Haywood to find out who Haywood's deceased wife had been having an affair with, Mabry soon discovers how crazy jealousy can make a person. ABOUT THE BOOK "As Francis so brilliantly illustrates, the life that Jesus calls us to is absolute craziness to the world. Sure, it's fine and politically correct to believe in God, but to really love Him is a whole different story." This signature quote by worship leader Chris Tomlin written in the Foreword to Crazy Love, is a perfect starting place for getting an understanding of Francis Chan's powerful work and the significance of it in our culture. I like that Tomlin refers to what Chan does, first and foremost, as illustration. That's insightful because although Crazy Love is rich with controversy, if we dare to view it from the onset through the lens of the term illustration we are much more likely to enjoy the ride. In common usage, illustrate means to paint a picture that captures or enables us to see the words. Writers at Dictionary.com defines illustrate as, "to clarify or explain by use of examples, explain or decorate with pictures; to enlighten." With that said then, Chan stands as one man with a "paint brush" a vision and a point of view, all of which bow to his experiences, both spiritual and natural. MEET THE AUTHOR Teirrah McNair is a college graduate who has been writing for stage, video and publications for over 20 years. A former youth pastor and educator, McNair penned over 25 short plays for children as artist in residence in California and Alaska. EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Cornerstone Church has not been the same since, and now loves its neighbors in contributing over 55% of the church's income to charitable causes. Chan, the always controversial and beaming proud dad, has moved on, and is now living and loving his neighbors in San Francisco through an organization called San Francisco City Impact. The long list of projects in San Francisco, Simi Valley and globally clearly demonstrate that Chan has a heart for impacting the community he lives in. The busy author, speaker, teacher and neighborhood improvement specialist has penned two additional books for adults, Forgotten God and Erasing Hell as well as three children's books... USA Today author Melissa Schroeder invites you back to the world of Juniper Springs, and the one man who lives life on his own terms, CARTER HAWTHORNE. I've always been the brother who everyone calls the flirt. The one who isn't too serious, the one who is a little...different. And I don't mind that title. In fact, I use my ability to think outside of the box to help my family in their business. I'm also known as the player, although, I haven't...suited up in a while. So maybe that's why I've become completely infatuated with my old childhood friend Piper Abernathy. Just saying her name makes me itch beneath my skin. I want to know what she's thinking, how she spends her days, and I fantasize what her hair smells like. Weird, right? And her lips...they are intoxicating. One taste will never be enough, and while I can talk her into my bed, she resists me beyond that. She says we make each other bonkers, and she doesn't believe in happily ever after. For a woman who plans out ever minute of her day, she never counted on me, and I aim to prove to her there's nothing wrong with crazy as long as we're together. Author Note: If you've met Carter, you know just how insane he is. He's in Juniper, wooing his old childhood friend, irritating his brother, making friends with the LOLs, and becoming at one with the Juniper Springs culture. And if you think he's crazy with his family, just wait until you see the things he does to his lady love. From a bright new voice in African American women's fiction comes a sexy, scandalous, and scintillating novel set in steamy Atlanta. Stacie Long thinks she's God's gift to men and she keeps a list of qualities (phat ride, freak in bed...) that she's looking for in an ideal mate. But behind all her confidence she's got a secret -- one that even her best friend doesn't know about, one that may just keep her forever searching for her perfect man. Tameeka Johnson is a successful businesswoman who owns one of Atlanta's top wellness shops. But even with business booming, success in her bedroom is at an all-time low. Then, when she meets her black prince -- a loving man who promises to treat her like gold -- her insecurities about her sizeable body may just keep her from living the dream. Stacie and Tameeka are super tight, but their friendship is tested by sexy NBA players, baby mama drama, and temptations like they've never known before. Because if there's one thing these girls like better than each other, it's men. The sexy vivacious Cathleen Williams was a detriment to herself as well as others. Ultimately ending up in a psych ward didn't deter her deceit. Until the flavor of the month came along, she found ways to satisfy her sexual appetite, taking the bitter with the sweet. After seeing the tall and attractive, Det. Miles Avery, on TV while investigating a homicide, a flood of emotions began to consume her. Despite her past mental difficulties, she'd never given up hope of living a normal life. Their brief steamy sex act led her to believe Miles would be her knight in shining armor. Was it a fallacy? Did it really happen? Or will she finally lose her mind during her not pursuit of sexual satisfactions and normalcy?
